OPENING DAY OF THE FALL MEETING. FAST TIME BUT POOR STARTING-FERENZI WINS

THE AUTUMN STAKES. The first day of the fall meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club suffered somewhat by comparison with the opening day of the Brooklyn Jockey Ciub, for ore horses of high class can on Thursday and the startmore horses of high class ran on Thursday and the starting was far better. After the first race yesterday the opinion was general that the Brooklyn Club had shown much discretion in selecting Mr. Sheridan as starter and not Mr. Cauldwell, for no worse start in a field of seven horses has been seen this year. Mr. Cauldwell gave the race to Itulaia by the flying start in front with which he kindly favored her, while Little Minch and Gleaner, the fastest horses in the race, were so far back that neither had any chance even of a place, and Gleaner's head was turned the wrong war. McLaughlin, who was riding Gleaner miste no effort after the flag fell, for he saw it was a hopoless case. Garrison did his best with Little Minch. but could get only third place. As both Little Minch and Gleaner had been backed prodically both to win and for a place, Mr. Cauldwell's peculiar start was the greatest boon he could confer upon the betting ring. Such things make backers feel sore for a long time. One big bookmaker was especially happy, for in addition to all the money he made by the practical leaving at the post the money he made by the practical leaving at the post of Little Minch and Gleaner, he backed Itulaia on his

The starting was poor throughout the day. Mr. Cauldwell is rarely in such wretched form, which seemed all the worse in comparison with Sherid an's brilliant suc-

The three-year old race was won by J. H. McCormick's vastly improved filly Fawn, with Beas second. Gardey and Jim Gray dumped a great deal of money into the Slough of Despond. Still they ran tolerably well. But why is Fortland allowed longer to cumber the course except as an assistant to the mules that drag the harrows and sprinklingcart f That is all he is fit for, and Eolian seems little Swift was not swift in the third race, which was won by the Fairfax Stable's colt Housatonic with odds of S te l avainst him. Housatonic is out-of Vandaille, a greatlong-distance mare, and may yet prove himself a fine stayer. He was under the whip a half mile from the sh but lasted well. Swift's running was a puzzle On Thursday she ran away from a better field than she met yesterday and showed great speed and fine form. Yesterday she falled even to defeat that common cur Pon-tico for second place. Littlefield role her queerly in the homestretch. He seemed to have no ambition or energy. Tuere were a score at least of jockeys on that track who could have ridden Swift at 103 pounds and beaten Pouties. It is passing strange, Swift, like Little Minch, was agreat favorite, and her failure to run first or second was the richest of gifts to the bookmakers.

But the bookmakers were hard hit in the next race, when Littlefield rode Mr. Haggin's fine filly Ferenzi with plenty of ambition and energy, and she won easily. Mr. Haggin gained large sums by her victory, and her specialid race on Thursday made her a pet of the public also. Hardly a bookmaker in the whole big troop made my profit on the Ferenzi race. Lady Primross, Orifinmue and Montrose carried some money, but not much to win, principally for a place. That was all lost for Mr. Galway's colt Belvedere secured second place easily enough, though he got a had start, Oriflamme having much the best of the send-off. But Oriflamme is of rather common clay, while Ferenzi comes close to the class of Kingston, King Fox and Hanover, and would give the best of them a lively race.

Mr. Belmont's new English jockey, Henry Luke, rode Florence E. in the third race and Lady Primrose in the fourth. He has a good seat and neat hands, but is as yet a poor jurge of pace on an American track. He waited much too long with Lady Primrose, who could not have beaten Ferenzi anyway, but who would have been much nearer the front if she had been ridden as she was to her last race at Monmouth, which she won. That was before Luke ever saw her, as he landed from the steamship America on Friday.

Cholmia was said by many experts to be the surest of sure things in the fifth race, but he could not run a bit. and was last or next to last all the way. Font, who has run well at Brighton, won easily. Lakeland's Exile was a clever performer on the circus track on the turf and won the exhibition which closed the day's sport. Running on the grass is a pretty sight, but in America it will never be genuine racing. makes the ladies smile and the babies crow, and why should they not have their fun ? Fast time was made in all the races, the track now being in fine condition for speed. But the 1:41 to for the fifth race is a little queer, as the timing flag was not dropped until the horses were far beyond it. The exhi-Attonoon the turf beat the record at 13-.6 miles, but that record amounts to nothing.

Brighton Beach bewalled the defeats of Little Minch and Swift, but rejuved over the triumphs of Fawn, Font and Exile. So honors were easy.

Time—1.914.

Betting—Lattle Minch 7 to 10, Gleaner 5 to 1, Governor Roberts 6 to 1, Ittiliais 8 to 1, Bill Sterritt 10 to 1, Repartee 25 to 1, Mary Kennedy 25 to 1.

Mute was withdrawn.
To a disgraceful start Ittiliais was off a length in front, Bill Sterritt second, Repartee third, Governor Roberts fourth, Little Minch and Gleaner so far behind as to be practically left at the post. Ittiliais start gave her the race. Little Minch had no chance with such a start and could only get third place, while McLaughlin made no effort on Gleaner, giving up the contest when the starter's figs fell. Ittiliai won by two lengths, Bill Sterritt second, four lengths before Little Minch, the others straggling in.

Pontico was first off, Florence E. second, Ten Booker third. Littleheid quickly sent Switt up to Pontico's side, and the two raced together for a mile, with Housatonic third. It was amazing to see Swift's seeming inability to outrun Pontico, when the mare showed great speed on Thursday. Housatonic was whipped freely on the backstretch and the lower turn and by sheer staying power succeeded in outrunning both Swift and Pontico in the last furiong, though it must be admitted that Swift was ridden all the way up the homestretch with a singular lack of energy. Housatonic won by two lengths, Pontico second, a neck before Swift, who was four lengths before Valet.

LAST DAY'S RACING AT SARATOGA.

BOURKE COCKRAN WINDS UP THE SPORT WITH A

GRAND VICTORY. SARATOGA, Aug. 28 (Special.)-The Saratoga Racing Association to-day brought to a close for 1886 a successful season of turf aports, and the management state that the prospects for 1887 are flattering. The present racing season opened on July 24, and with a single exception has been continued uninterruptedly each week day. There have been thirty racing days, five races each day, making a total of 150 races. running races are popular with Saratogans and visitors was shown by the crowds of ladies and gentlemen who assembled at the course to-day. Notwithstanding the sultry weather the grand stand was filed to its utmost capacity, while the quarter-stretch was active with speculators and the public stand contained double its usual compliment of spectators. The track was fast and dusty. The first race was a mile, for a purse of $400. The starters included J. T. Williams's Pat Sheedy, 3, 102 (Harris); O. Bowie's Carissima, 3, 94 (O'Brieu); R. P. DARKNESS STOPS A BASEBALL GAME. The contest at Washington Park vesterday between the Brooklyn and Baltimore clubs was one in which the batting was heavy. Both clubs took kindly to the pitching and did well to the enjoyment of the 4,000 spectators. The Brooklyn men got their hits well together, and placed them where they would do the most good. A home run by Terry in the first most good. A home run by Terry in the bratinning netted three runs. At the end of the first inning when the home club had put Terry in the box, and was making a poor sho wing, the Brooklyn team claimed that it was too dark to continue play, and at their request Umpire Bradley called the game. In the second mining, when flenderson came to the but, he was presented with a diamond ring;

the setting was in the shape of a baseball diamond and consisted of nine diamonds.

An interesting game of baseball between the office men of the Equitable Life Assurance Society and Mutual Life Insurance Company was played on the Polo Grounds on Friday. The Equitable team won by a score of 12 to 5. There were many brilliant, plays that would have done credit to professionals. Bisnop pitched and Eckman caught for the Equitables, and Carbonel and Tempson filled those positions, respectively, for the Mutuals.

ANOTHER DEFEAT FOR THE METROPOLITANS. Over 1,000 people witnessed the game played at Staten Island yesterday between the Athletics of Philadelphia and the Metropolitans, which resulted in another victory for the Athletics. Heavy batting was done by both sides and the "Mets" lead at this, but their costly errors gave the visitors the game in the last half of the eighth inning. The batting of Meister and Orr was the feature of the game for the Metropolitans. McGarr and Bauer fielded in excellent style for the Athletics. Following is the score:

IRISH LACROSSE MEN GO HOME. The decks of the steamship Umbria were like furnace yesterday afternoon when the little band of Irish lacrosse players said good by to their American friends. Only nine members of the team sailed yester-day. The two Kellys are staying in Saratoga, McLeish has gone to Chicago, and Mac Donald and Montgomery has gone to Chicago, and Mac Donaid and Montgomery went home on Saturday a week aco. The New York Lacrosse Club assembled in strong force. H. H. Balen, the vice-president, T. M. Marson, the secretary, J. A. Hodge, Jr., W. Robinson, J. Gerndt, A. D. Ritchey and others were there. The frishmen were in high spirits, all going home with the highest opinions of America and all expressing themselves as having had a thoroughly pleasant and enjoyable time. The great topic of discussion, however, was the projected visit of the New-York Larosse Club to Great Britain and Ireland in the summer of '88. The Irishmen prophesied an enthusiastic welcome and good lacrosse if the New-Yorkers went over. John Sinclair, the manager of the team, before the ship sailed, said that while they had won only three matches during their stay—Niagara, Shamrocks of Montreal, and Canadin Indians—they feit thoroughly satisfied with their trip, and their only regret was that they could not stay
